Dear Gaddiel

Your clients with 2-24 employees now have access to Guardian Accident and Cancer insurance, and can take advantage of enhanced Critical Illness coverage:

- Accident insurance pays a benefit to an employee for treatments and services related to an accident, regardless of what is covered by their medical plan. Payments also cover non-medical expenses like transportation and rent.
- Cancer insurance pays a benefit to an employee for treatments and services related to cancer, regardless of what is covered by medical insurance. Payments also cover non-medical expenses like transportation and rent.
- Critical Illness insurance provides a lump sum benefit of up to $50,000 to employees suffering from a critical illness. Proceeds can be used to cover medical and non-medical expenses.
