

2012 Cigna Web Meeting Series

Choosing the health plan funding solution that's right for you

By implementing innovative benefit plans and funding arrangements, organizations and their people get the maximum value for their health plan so every dollar works harder and goes further.

The right funding selection helps organizations better manage risk and budgeting and cash flow needs.

Join employers, brokers and consultants in a live web meeting on choosing the health plan funding solution that's right for you. You'll learn about:

- the components that make up every health care funding arrangement,
- the differences between fully insured, participating funding arrangements and self-funded plans, and
- ways you can win when you invest in employee health.
