January 26, 2015

Today, Cigna announced it has entered into an agreement to purchase QualCare Alliance Networks, Inc. (QANI). The agreement combines Cigna's broad and integrated portfolio of health-related products and services and national scale with QANI's expertise and capabilities in working with hospital systems to drive innovation, affordability and value. The joining of Cigna and QANI will allow for growth, innovation and expansion as well as more customized products and solutions in local markets and nationally.

There are no immediate changes for clients.

We believe this will give brokers multiple benefits in the near future, including an expanded customer base and product offerings.
