Final Regulations – 2018 Notice of Benefit and Payment Parameters

On December 16, 2016, the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) issued final regulations related to a wide range of Affordable Care Act (ACA) provisions. These final regulations, effective for plans and plan years beginning on and after January 1, 2018, are relatively the same as the proposed regulations issued August 29, 2016. Among a variety of provision updates that primarily impact the individual and small group markets, the final regulations also include an increase to the consumer out-of-pocket maximum, up to $7,350 for individual coverage and $14,700 for family coverage ($7,150 for individual, $14,300 for family in 2017).

The 2018 annual out-of-pocket maximum increase will directly impact large group health plans.

The final regulations also include a number of provisions intended to strengthen the Health Insurance Marketplace, including:

- Updating the risk adjustment program for insurers with high-cost enrollees
- Ensuring that special enrollment period rules are enforced
- Attracting additional young, healthy participants to the Marketplace
- Removing barriers to new insurers entering the Marketplace
- Ensuring that enrollees transition to Medicare when they become eligible
- Increasing the number of standardized plan options
- Allowing greater flexibility in Bronze plan designs
- Enhancing the direct enrollment process through web brokers
