

2012 Cigna Web Meeting Series

Health Care Reform: Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) and Regulatory Update

Public Policy, New Fees/Taxes and Essential Health Benefits: What You Need to Know

Please join us on Wednesday, November 14, 2012 from 3-4 p.m. ET for a complimentary Health Care Reform web meeting.

In this interactive session, we will bring to life the latest reform-related info on public policy and politics, new fees and taxes, and what we know so far about how Essential Health Benefits are evolving.

We'll answer questions like:

- How could the election results impact health care reform?
- What should employers do to prepare for the new fees and taxes?
- Which states are furthest along in defining their benchmark plan for Essential Health Benefits, and what can it teach us about 2014 benefits strategy?
- How do Essential Health Benefits differ from "Minimum Value" or "Minimum Essential Coverage?"

We'll also provide you with actionable insights about how, as employers and benefit advisors, you can ensure your ongoing compliance with the legislation and be proactive in your efforts.

As always, we'll leave plenty of time to answer your questions – and to be sure we address your most pressing inquiries, we're offering you the opportunity to submit them when you register.

And, as appropriate, we'll amend the agenda post-election.

Join us for a live, interactive one-hour web meeting
